STRIKE IS REPORTED AT ALLEGHANY GRACEY IS A PROMISING PROPERTY

One of the promising mining properties being opened up at the present time in this district is the Gracey property on Canada Hill where shaft sinking operations are being prosecuted with three shifts at work.

Air drills were installed the past few days and will greatly facilitate the completion of the present sinking program, there being but thirty feet to go before drifting will be started east and west of the shaft to open up prospective ore bodies. It is the intention of the operators to make a thorough opening up of the ground before contemplating any milling installation. The indications are very good for bringing in a real producer but no chances are being taken until the ore is blocked out and thorough sampling done.

The two compartment vertical shaft is being heavily timbered all the way down and is now over 200 feet deep. The old Nivens drift is being used as a drain tunnel and using a two inch ejector the water is being easily handled. An old drift off the Nivens tunnel has been bulkheaded with concrete as a reservoir and using a centrifugal pump is kept full of water with the ejector as sinking progresses. The air compressor was put in commission the past few days and is greatly speeding up the work. The shaft is in ledge matter and the formation is excellent.

The new diversion ditch of the Irrigation District is scheduled to cross the property within a few feet of the new shaft and it will be necessary to pipe the ditch at this point and for some distance either side to prevent flooding the property. The ditch survey has hit a number of the properties in the Basin amidships, crossing directly over the workings of the Murchie lease and within a few feet of the Pittsburg shaft.

The Gracey operations are being directed by R. N. McCormack who is the owner of the Gracey Flat Ledge claim, one of the three which have been grouped for economical working. The Gracey claim is owned by the estate of John Aborgast while the Glencoe is the property of the A. Nivens estate.

Dr. E. L. Herrington, a practicing physician of San Francisco, is the principal interested owner.

Reports have been current for several weeks that a strike of large proporttions has been made in the famous Tightner property at Alleghany, now owned by the Sixteen to One Company. The Nugget forbore publishing the rumors at the time pending official advices from the company which has so far refused to give out any information.

Estimates of the value of a nearly solid chunk of gold taken from the lower workings following the sinking of the Tightner shaft 500 feet, run from $25,000 to $50,000, which is one of the largest strikes in the history of California gold mining operations.

The strike should greatly stimulate activity at a number of other properties in that section which are expecting to reopen.

NEW ENGLAND MILL TO OPERATE CUSTOM PLANT

Since the announcement some time ago that the New England Consolidated Mines were contemplating the conversion of their mill into a custom plant for the treatment of ores and concentrates, there has been much interest shown by the lager much interest shown by the larger rators, and we have it on good authority that a very substantial tonnage has already been contracted for.

There is a real need for such a mill in this district because of the cost of shipping and smelting these concentrates, and because in some cases, the difference between profit and loss lies in the realization on the values in the concentrates. The New England mill, using as it does, an all-sliming process in which advantage is taken of the superior dissolving poperties of mercuric cyanide, is an ideal mill for the treatment of these concentrates; though several changes must be made, they are mainly of a mechanical nature.

In some cases, unfortunately, the operators are not saving their concentrates because of the difficulty, heretofore, in realizing on them. Because of the elimination of the freight and the reduced cost of treatment by the cyanide process it is believed that the concentrates from all of these mines can be handled at a profit to the operator. An effort is now being made to have those operators who are not saving their concentrates, or are not giving concentration its due attention, to do so, pending the completion of a survey which is now being made.

Closely related to the concentrates are the black sands of the placer mines. These sands are often exceedingly high in gold value; they are not now being saved. The value of these sands should be much higher than that of the concentrates and should be saved, as they can be readily saved by this new process of cyanidation. Because of their character, these sands can be handled in small lots of a few hundred lbs. and would be acceptable at the mill when in operation.

The treatment of the concentrates in this district is particularly important as the records show that in some instances, as much as one half of the values in the mill ore lie in the concentrates. With a mill of this charcter in operation, and with inceased savings in concentrates, the production of this district can be materially increased.

The New England plant is well equipped with a Marcy ball mill of 50 ton ore capacity. This comprises a one stage grinding unit in closed circuit with a classifier followed by agitation and cyanide solution. This is the very latest proven process of cyanidation and has worked exceptionally well on the sulphide ores of this section.

The district has been sadly in need of a custom mill for the handling of the product from properties not equipped with milling facilities and with the increased interest in mining, this should prove very acceptable to the mineral industry.

PLACER COUNTY MINES OPENING UP SHORTLY

Auburn will have a little old time mining flavor again with the opening up again of the old Davenport property which is within the city limits. Fred Lucebrink has taken a purchase option on the property and will install a five stamp mill to run the old dump through which shows good values. The old workings will be opened up later. Electric power is being installed by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

The Four Aces mine at Foresthill is doing a great deal to bring that once bustling mining camp into prominence again. The last monthly clean-up was reported in the neighborhood of $90,000. The company is contemplating the starting of a lower tunnel to cut under the rich pay shoots.

The Baltimore mine at Foresthill belonging to McCauley and Steiner has been taken under bond by Utah capitalists who are running a tunnel expected to be completed in 90 days which will tap the old White gravel channel a great former producer. The tunnel is at present in over a mile.

CASSIDY ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY FOR THE POST STATE SENATOR

Burt A. Cassidy, publisher of the Auburn Journal, the past week announced his candidacy for the post of state senator which has been held for the past 12 years by Thomas Ingram. Mr. Cassidy has been prominent in the councils of the Republican party of Placer County and has always been a strong worker in the ranks.

He may safely be counted on to further the mining interests of the state which is important in the coming session with regard to hydraulic mining. He has expressed himself very favorable toward the completion of the Yuba Pass highway as an all year route over the Sierras.

The announcement of his candidacy has evoked many expressions of approval over the district.

GEORGE GRISSEL PASSES FROM MORTAL LIFE

A pioneer resident of Nevada County for sixty three years past, George A. Grissell passed to his last reward Wednesday morning in Sacramento where he had been for some months seeking medical relief. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon from the Odd Fellows hall under the auspices of Oustomah Lodge of which deceased had long been a member.

Mr. Grissell was born in Pennsylvania February 20th, 1853 and came to California and Nevada County 12 years later. His father operated a hotel at Washington for a number of years and the son after attending school took over the stage line to Nevada City which he conducted for a long time, later buying the horse drawn busses between Nevada City and Grass Valley. He with the late David Harris went into the clothing business about fifteen years ago which he conducted up to the time of his death.

He was married Jan. 15th, 1879 to the devoted woman who now survives him, as do three brothers, John of Nevada City, Frank of Stockton and Charles of Fresno, and a sister, Mrs. Margaret Allen of Marysville. He held membership in the Odd Fellow, Knights of Pythias and the Elks.

Mrs. Mary Briggs, a native of the San Juan Ridge passed away in San Francisco last week.

IRRIGATION DISTRICT ISSUES STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL CONDITION

The 1927 financial statement of the Nevada Irrigation District was issued the past week and contains many matters of interest.

The revenue from water sales tatalled $69,528.80 which is the only source of earned income listed aside from interest on deposits. No money is listed as being received from the Pacific Gas & Electric Company, it being reported that there will be no payments made until such time as the District is ready to deliver the contracted amount of water. Engineering expenses decreased from $246,000 in 1926 to $172,000. Labor charges for operation and maintenance of the distribution system totalled $39,364.99 and administration overhead was $26,816.93. Contractors advances which were later refunded amounted to $115,269.49 and refunded overpayments to contractors reached a total of $23,467.42. The legal department absorbed $13,239.34 and in the receipts in the construction fund is listed an item of a $500 refund account of Washington trip. A contribution of $500 was received on the Forest Springs ditch. The balance of the bonds which were sold brought in $911,130.00

The recapitulation shows a balance of $47,088.68 in the general fund. How much of this allocated on contracts is not set forth.

No further information is available regarding the break in the Fall Creek siphon which was reported out in The Nugget two weeks ago comparatively as to how long the ditch line will be out of commission. There is but little water reported in Bowman at the present time owing to repairs contemplated to the spillway and possibly the main dam which have been leaky.

RICHARD PHILLIPS HAS CROSSED INTO BEYOND

Richard "Dick" Phillips who suffered a stroke of paralysis three weeks ago, passed from mortal life last Monday evening, never recovering from the effects of the stroke. Funeral services were held Thursday morning and were largely attended by sorrowing friends.

Deceased was born Feb. 29th, 1869, in Michigan and came to this section when but a child. He followed mining after attending the schools and then took up the profession of capentering, learning his trade with T. H. Corcoran. He was a good workman and took a just pride in his labors.

He was wed Dec. 20, 1899, to Miss Clara Avery of this city and she with the following children survive him: Avery, Ida, Jane and Laurel Phillips.

GRASS VALLEY CHAMBER RENEWS SUBSCRIPTION

In the mail the other day came the unsolicited renewal of the subscription of the Grass Valley Chamber of Commerce for The Nugget for the coming year. This progressive organization was also one of the first subscribers to this paper when it was getting under way. Such a spirit is but eloquent of the type of men who compose the organization and for the civic body of ou neighboring city to display interest in the Nevada City newspaper is certainly appreciated. J. E. Gooding, popular manager of the telephone company and the Rev. E. O. Chapel, than whom there is no finer wearer of the clerical cloth are the president and secretary. This paper bespeaks for these men and their organization a happy and prosperous year's work.

PLAZA GROCERY UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT NOW

Miss Alice Langman and Mrs. J. Some news seem to fit together naturally. We read that 1928 is going to be a big year for the sale of autos, and alongside it an item that more hospitals are being built than ever before.

According to a Nevada City man a stingy man is one who complains because he doesn't catch cold right after Christmas so he can use the new handkerchiefs he got for a present.

When a Grass Valley man has a car that thinks all his money should be spent on it and a wife who thinks it all should be spent on her which should he give the preference?

The way some people around Nevada City drive cars it would be a lot more in keeping to remove the steering wheel and put a bigger horn button on the post.

Why is it that a skinny person can always get skinnier and a fat person can always get fatter but they can't reverse the process?

NO BANK ANYWHERE CAN GIVE YOU BETTER SERVICE

If you lived in the largest city in the west, or the east either, for that matter, there is not a bank anywhere that could give you a better service than you can get at your own bank in your own city under its present mnaagement. With almost three hundred financial institutions functioninging together in California, this system of banks is in a position to perform any financial service that is legitimate for any of its customers. And we want our patrons to know that our assistance is not necessarily confined to financial matters. We are anxious to serve, to make ourselves indispensable to our customers, to give information and to help in every way that it is possible for one friend to help another. We are sincere in this because we want this growing system of banks to something more than money stores—we want it to be a vital part of the community life.

"Get the message through"

IN THE Sixties the "pony express" carried the mail over mountain and Indian wilderness from St. Joseph, Missouri, to San Francisco. The express riders and station keepers won undying fame for getting the message through, regardless of hardship or danger.

In fact and in spirit, the Bell System is the lineal descendant of the pony express. Operators volunteer to remain at their switchboards in the face of fire, flood or other great danger. Linemen go out to repair the lines in time of accident or storm—even at the risk of their lives.

There are no instructions requiring Bell System employees to endanger their lives. It is the spirit of communication that bids them, "Get the message through."

ALMOND BLOSSOMS DUE AT FRENCH CORRAL

FRENCH CORRAL, Feb. 4.—(Special to the Nugget) — Well Ground Hog Day has passed and we know what to expect in the weather line, if tradition holds true. Mr. Ground Hog must have seen his shadow yesterday a. m. while that beautiful rainbow was visible.

Old Jupiter Fluvius was busy all night, while Mr. Ground Hog slept in his bed. But there wil lbe no delaying Spring. This is a warm rain and above the music of its patter we hear the voices of the frogs singing loud and clear. A happy chorus, they!

Miss Springtime did not pay her visit to our Tyler friends earlier than to French Corral. We were so busy with our oranges etc., that we forgot to mention she was wearing her manzanita blossoms and pussy willow costumes, some time ago. She will have her new almond blossom pattern ready for the coming week. People do not stay at home on account of the weather, and for the past week we note the coming and going as follows:

Milton Tackett made a trip from Sacramento Sunday. On his return trip he was accompanied by his father, F. M. Tacekttt, who has been spending a few weeks at the old home place near French Corral. This place is now owned by W. C. Clerkin.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jones of Sweetland visted friends in French Corral Sunday.

Coughlan and Vizzard passed thru here with a drove of cattle enruote to the Blenman ranch at Pleasant Valley.

J. W. Brown of Gridley was in French Corral this week looking up a home place. Said he had heard of our wonderful climate. Would like to go into the dairy business, but water! Oh! water, that is the question!

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Culver made a trip to Tyler this week to visit Mr. Culver's sister, Mrs. Ray McNamara.

Wm. Wright of Pleasant Valley had business here Wednesday.

Thomas Meyers visited Nevada City this week.

N. B. Bishop had business in Nevada City this week.

H. Barron returned to his home in French Corral after spending some time in Pleasant Valley.

Teddy, little son of our school teacher, Mrs. Elsie Schwartz, met with a painful accident by which his nosewa s broken in two places. The children were playing ball, and Teddy, who was catcher, got too close to the bat.

Bill McCullough, who has been working at Weed, is home on a visit and was a visitor here yesterday. Bill likes French Corral and never fails to pay the good old place a visit, if he can get within six miles of it. Well, we French Corralites like Bill too.

We hope for pleasant weather for February 18th, as at that time the Sweetland ladies plan to give their Valentine Social at that place. It will be in the interest of the S. J. R. W. U. Association and all look forward to a good time. More about this next week.

We appreciate the splendid write-ups given North San Juan by the Sacramento Bee, and hope there may be more, for there is much to say. We all like the "Bee", and it has many patrons on the Ridge. Altho in other years we were somewhat wiviwed in our interests, Sacramentans must be cognizant of the fact, that we helped enrich the soil of the lower country, by sending our wonderful hills down that way. The good old Sacramento river knows how to take care of some of the "slickens" and send it along to other places. Why as far back as 1858 the boats used to "get on the hog back's! Well, old Father Time seems to work all those puzzling problems out for the good of all, anyway.

HIGH SCHOOL LOSES TWO OF THREE BASKETBALL GAMES

Last Saturday evening the N. C. H. S. A. B and C teams met like squads from Auburn in Armory Hall and a great exhibition of good basketball playing was perceived by all present. All persons who saw the games expressed great satisfaction in the playing and fight put up by the local boys.

The first game played was between the two C teams and the Nevada City midgets played a steady offensive type of basketball and came out on top by a score of 12-5.

The "B" game was the second one to be run off and our boys lost after a tough battle. The local team was outclassed but they were game and Auburn had to fight for what they attained. Auburn won 32-16.

The "A" boys put on the final game of the evening and it was a close one from start to finish. The players and audience were tense thruout the entire contest. Our boys put up a wonderful brand of basketball and the audience was satisfied even the outcome wasn't exactly as was hoped for. Penrose's shooting eye was acting very good during the game and we should see more wonderful shots made by this player before the season ends. Solaro, Hing, Skeahan and Hegarty are all A1 players.

The game ended in favor of our opponents 37-26.

All the Nevada City boys played much better than they did when they met Auburn in December.

Next Wednesday will be the time when the Nevada County "big games" take place. The three teams will play those of Grass Valley in Armory Hall at 6:45 p. m. All persons interested in the school and city should turn out and encourage the teams to win over their traditional rivals.
